A clever, popular Candy Cold Cure Tablet—called Preventives—is being dispensed by druggists everywhere. In a few hours, Preventives are said to break any cold—completely. And Preventives, being so safe and toothsome, are very fine for children. No quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh nor sickening. Box of 48—25c. Sold by Capital Drug Store.

Some people really think it is better to have gone dead broke than never to have gone at all.

Gambling.

Your life against 25 cents is just exactly what you are doing if you neglect a cough or cold on the chest. Instead of treating it with Ballard's Horehound Syrup. A 25-cent bottle of this splendid remedy will cure an ordinary cough, heal the lungs and act as a tonic for your entire system. Sold by all dealers.

ROBT. HATTON GOES TO HIS REWARD

Robert Hatton, one of Dallas' best known and highly respected citizens, died at his home in Dallas Saturday afternoon, August 28, after a long and painful illness. He had been afflicted with a complication of ailments, the chief of which was dropsy, for several months. He began to sink rapidly about two weeks ago and despite the best efforts of his physicians he continued to grow worse until death relieved him of his suffering.

Mr. Hatton was born in Adams county, Illinois, May 29, 1853. After a residence in Missouri, Nebraska and Nevada he came to Oregon in 1887, only a few months after his marriage to Miss Eliza C. Golden of Nebraska. He first settled near Perrydale, in Polk county, but afterwards moved to Rickreall, where he was employed for several years in the McDaniels & White flouring mill. He then moved to Dallas and continued to reside in this city up to the time of his death. For a long time prior to the beginning of his last illness he had been employed at the Willamette Valley Lumber Company's sawmill in the capacity of night watchman.

In the death of Robert Hatton Polk county loses an honorable and upright citizen. He was a pleasant, companionable man, strictly honest in his dealings, and always faithful to his employers. He became a member of the Christian church in Perrydale in 1889, and after moving to Dallas ten years later he placed his membership with the congregation in this city. He was true to his faith and was greatly beloved by his brethren of the church, by all of whom he will be greatly missed.

He was a member of Sheridan camp, Woodmen of the World. He is survived by his wife, one brother, D. B. Hatton of Woodbine, Ia., and one sister, Mrs. S. A. Leach of Salem, Or.; an uncle, T. T. Notson of Dallas, and two aunts, Mrs. Henry Byerly of Perrydale, and Mrs. Josephine Rowell of Sheridan. He also leaves a sister-in-law, Mrs. N. P. Hatton of Lodi, Cal.

The funeral was held from the family home Sunday afternoon and was largely attended by sorrowing neighbors and friends. The services were conducted by the Rev. C. A. Sias, pastor of the First Christian church. Burial took place in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. The funeral was conducted at the cemetery by the order of Woodmen.

JAMES L. CRYE BEAT THE DIVORCE COURTS

[United Press Local Wire.] Hanford, Cal., Sept. 9.—Mrs. Jas. L. Crye is probably fatally wounded today, and her husband lies dead from a self-inflicted wound, because she had filed a suit for divorce yesterday. Crye is a wealthy farmer living near here. When he discovered that his wife had just filed a divorce complaint in this city he hastened to his ranch home. He secured a revolver and shot the woman. One bullet struck her in the arm, and the second entered the abdomen. Believing that he had killed her, the infuriated man then sent a bullet crashing through his head. He died instantly.

A Burnt Child

Dreads the fire. The dread is wholesome, but not the burn; that can be healed and instantly relieved by applying Ballard's Snow Liniment. Be prepared for accidents by keeping a bottle always in the house. Best for sprains, bruises, cuts, scalds, rheumatism, neuralgia, bunions—any and all aches and pains. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by all dealers.

The man who marries for money probably thinks there are easier ways of earning it than he would now be willing to try.

Why?

From a small beginning the sale and use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has extended to all parts of the United States and to many foreign countries. Why? Because it has proved especially valuable for coughs and colds. For sale by all good druggists.

Testifies After Four Years.

Carlisle Center, N. Y., G. B. Burhans writes: "About four years ago I wrote you that I had been entirely cured of kidney trouble by taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy, and after four years I am again pleased to state that I have never had any return of those symptoms, and am evidently cured to stay cured." Foley's Kidney Remedy will do the same for you. J. C. Perry.
